QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Arts is like a swiss army knife—it feeds many different needs that schools have and will reach certain populations of students that maybe other things would not." – Marinell Rousmaniere

"Great literature, past or present, is the expression of great knowledge of the human heart; great art is the expression of a solution of the conflict between the demands of the world without and that within." – Edith Hamilton

"It has always seemed strange to me that in our endless discussions about education so little stress is laid on the pleasure of becoming an educated person, the enormous interest it adds to life. To be able to be caught up into the world of thought — that is to be educated." – Edith Hamilton

"There are few efforts more conducive to humility than that of the translator trying to communicate an incommunicable beauty. Yet, unless we do try, something unique and never surpassed will cease to exist except in the libraries of a few inquisitive book lovers." – Edith Hamilton

"A rich man is nothing but a poor man with money." – W. C. Fields
